RESOLUTIONS

Adopted by the Union County Convention which met at Auburn, Placer county, on the 10th and 11th June, 1867:

Resolved, That it is the duty of the loyal men in the United States, through their representatives in Congress, to take under their control the government of the late rebel States, until such time as a sufficient number of the late rebel States shall be found therein to organize governments; and that then the future control of said States should be left in the hands of their loyal citizens to the exclusion of all those who have been traitors to those who voluntarily gave them aid in the field.

Resolved, That we approve of the late Act of Congress for the reconstruction of the rebel States, and earnestly hope that the coming session, large landed estates of the country who gave their personal influence and donated their means to destroy the Government, will be confiscated and divided up into small tracts and donated to the soldiers who fought our battles, saved the Union and preserved our freedom.

Resolved, That the vital issue between the Union and Democratic parties is that of loyalty to the constitutional Government of the United States as opposed to disloyalty thereto; that the loyalty of the Union party has been abundantly manifested in the constant support of the Government in all its branches, while the disloyalty of the present Democratic party is clearly manifest in the aid and comfort which during the late war it continually afforded to the public enemy, and in the sympathy which it still extends in favor of every movement tending to paralyze the efforts of Congress to ward the healthy reconstruction of the Federal Union.

Resolved, That the Union party of the United States is the only party in favor of the Union, the Constitution and the laws, and that the pretensions set forth by the Democratic party in this regard are false and hollow, unfounded in fact, and disproved by history.

Resolved, That the mission of the Union party is not and can never be accomplished until the opposing party thereto be entirely purged of its disloyal elements and excluding the present heretics, shall in good faith determine to accept the great results of the late war, and thenceforth to take issue only upon questions upon which adverse opinions may be held or put in practice without jeopardizing the continuance of republican government upon this continent. Until then it is our imperative duty to stand by our colors in the full knowledge that with us in domain and liberty—against us only division and disgrace.

Resolved, That in the present condition of our State finances, we are opposed to any donation in money or bonds or any loan of the credit of the State to railroads or other corporations, and that our candidates for Senator and Representatives if elected, are hereby instructed to oppose by their votes and personal influence the enactment of any laws having any such object in view.

P. W. THOMAS,
 Chairman Committee on Resolutions.

Won't Go Off.—It is pretty generally conceded now that the people have had time to take the "sober second thought" that if McCarthy could be induced to withdraw from the State ticket that we would have one which would favorably compare with previous nominations, but the fellow won't do it. He says that he is after the honor! Well, we suppose everybody is in pursuit of that which they possess least. McCarthy in speaking of this matter gets off the following unbecoming:

"Ever since the State Convention certain of Governor's friends have been insisting that McCarthy's nomination from the ticket, but as often have ascertained that public sentiment is adverse to that measure! They may as well desist, now, and finally, The Union nomination for State Printer will not be bought off, but will suffer his paper to be destroyed by any such petty despotism."

"Public sentiment is adverse to that measure," is it? In your own style we would as soon expect to eject a hungry dog from a tan yard as to drive you from the ticket.

The Central Pacific Railroad Company have furnished schoolhouses at every point across their road where there are children to attend them. The men who look out for the education of the rising generation will do to bet on, and deserve commendation.

That's so. And yet you find those most in need of instruction frequently abusing the very men who are engaged in building school houses over the country. The Democrats have no good feeling for the railroad Company.

CENTRAL COMMITTEE.—The Union County Central Committee is advertised to meet at Auburn on Monday next. It is particularly desired that all the members should be represented, either in person or by proxy, as important business will come before the Committee.

MOR.—The Russian purchase is called the chou de frée of the United States.

THE FOURTH of July in Dutch Flat passed off agreeably to a large majority of our citizens, nothing occurring to mar the good feeling and enjoyment of any one, that we have heard of. At sunrise the Pacific Guard fired a national salute and at 11 o'clock turned out for parade, some fifty or sixty muskets, marched through the several streets of the town and dismissed to dinner at the Dutch Flat Hotel, when the several invited guests partook of a collation prepared for the Company. In the afternoon the German Calithumpians paraded through the streets much to the amusement of all spectators and apparently, very great gratification to the members of the society. The music furnished on this occasion was sufficient to challenge the admiration and applause of all who were fortunate enough to hear it. During the entire day good feeling prevailed, and early in the evening the beauty and chivalry assembled at the theater to enjoy the festivities of the ball. The large hall was comfortably filled, and the ladies and gentlemen who participated seemed to enjoy the situation with a lively zest. The dancing was kept up until an early hour yesterday morning when the crowd dispersed feeling satisfied that they had contributed their mites in perpetuating the observance of our glorious national anniversary, and keeping alive a feeling in the minds of the rising generation for freedom and Union. The boys waved their miniature flags and fired their pop-guns with as much earnestness and gusto as though each discharge decided the fate of the country and every wave of their flag increased the civic, religious and political importance of the country. Long may they think it.

UNHEALTHY ACTION.—It is reported that a Mexican schooner had arrived at the mouth of the Mississippi on the 29th June having board exiled Imperialists and Mexicans who had been peremptorily banished. They confirm the report of the capture of Santa Ana at Sisol, and add that when the Captain of the Virginia told the Liberals they must take Santa Ana by force, as his vessel was not armed, he spread the American ensign in the gangway, and the Mexicans trod on the flag and seized Santa Ana and thrust him into a boat and took him to Campeachy and confined him as a prisoner of war at that place. The Liberals were shooting, hanging and expelling Imperial sympathizers. It is very evident that those fellows are laying the pipes for the departure of several scalps from the land of the cactus and musket. The sooner they lose them the better for humanity as well as Christianity.

HIS FATE SEALED.—The telegraphic dispatches inform us that on the 29th of June, Maximilian, who for a brief period sported the imposing title of Emperor in the halls of the Montezumas, was shot like a dog by order of Juarez, and that his remains were refused to his friends. It is reported that the Austrian minister at Washington received a dispatch from the commander of the Austrian vessel lying at Vera Cruz, simply stating that Maximilian was shot at 7 o'clock on the morning of the 19th June. The Austrian legation, it is stated, fully credit the intelligence. The Secretary of the Navy had read a dispatch confirming the news.

THE patriotic, unselfish, pure, high-minded Flag, over which D. O. McCarthy pretends to preside, but for which it is said he has never written an article, is at present troubled with a huge disgust for the Union State Central Committee, on account of the action of that body in not giving him the lion's share of its patronage. The Flag says it has maintained and kept together the party organization, (1) and it wanted assistance for the interior press! That's good, too. McCarthy asking assistance for the country papers. He is a modest young man; we rather like his impudence. Who is after peanuts now, Mac? Probably were you to say less you would have greater influence, especially where you are known.

THE Chico Courant comes to us considerably enlarged and otherwise improved in appearance. We wish you success, Brother Bishop; from the appearance of your advertising patronage you are receiving a fair share of this world's goods.

SCHOOL TRUSTEE ELECTION.—On Saturday, as per notice, an election took place at the school house for the election of three school trustees, which resulted in the election of Richard Hoskins, Henry Runkle and Hamlet Davis, all good men, who will take a pleasure in seeing that our school matters are properly attended to.

FIFTH VOLUME.—The Stars and Stripes entered upon its fifth volume on Wednesday last. It is a good paper and promises to do yeoman service in the present campaign. May it receive that patronage that is so eminently its due.

RESIGNED.—It is currently reported that Captain S. Wardner, of the Pacific Guard, has sent in his resignation, to take effect immediately. The Captain was a good officer and his absence will be regretted by his command.

A VERY DESTRUCTIVE FIRE occurred at West Point, Calaveras county, on Wednesday last. The entire business portion of the town was consumed. Loss, about $40,000.

HIS DEFENSE.—W. H. Parks, the Union candidate for Secretary of State, has written a letter to the Union exonerating himself, and makes the following defense to those who have heretofore opposed his nomination on the ground that fraud and trickery were used to bring about that result:

"Now, as to my 'usurpation of power' and 'outrageous decision.' As to usurpation of power, it only requires slight reflection on the part of any individual to see that I was required to make a decision in the matter. The question was sure to rise as to which, if either, of the delegations from San Francisco should cast the vote. You may all take issue with me as to the correctness of my decision, but you cannot say it was a usurpation of power; neither can I be charged with fraud, because the correctness of the decision was a mere matter of opinion, and I had no power to enforce my own opinion upon others. An appeal could have been taken from my ruling, and if a majority of the Convention disagreed with me, I should have been overruled. Now, if it was such an outrageous and fraudulent decision, as charged, why did three hundred delegates sit and silently acquiesce in the fraud? Were they taken by surprise? Were they unaccustomed to sitting in Conventions or other deliberate bodies, or what excuse have they to offer? They were not surprised, for I had informed Gen. Bidwell what my decision would be, two days before the assembling of the State Convention. No sir; the question was well understood, and well canvassed for two days, and Gen. Bidwell had many ardent supporters; they as conscientious men, would not vote for the exclusion of that delegation, and their subsequent action will bear me out in this statement. They accepted the decision as correct, without an appeal, and expected to win the organization on that basis. They lost it."

He also makes the following proposition to those who accused him of naughty and unbecoming behavior.

"Much has been said about my nomination, and about the corruption of the Convention, and many of those who feel aggrieved are consulting as to the best means of getting me off the ticket. Now, I will suggest what I think will be the easiest way to get me off. I here declare that all the charges of corruption and fraud, whether general or specific, are false and without foundation; and if any man, or set of men, will substantiate one fraudulent act or trick perpetrated by me, either before or during the primaries, before or at the Convention, in order to secure the nomination of Gorham of myself, or any other nominee, then I will immediately place in the hands of the State Central Committee my withdrawal from the ticket; and I appeal to every candid Union man whether my accusers should not either substantiate their charges or render me their support."

THE FOURTH was very generally observed throughout the State.

JEFFERSON DAVIS ON SECESSION BEFORE THE WAR—AN UNPUBLISHED LETTER.

We find the following letter in the Hartford (Conn.) Press:

WARREN COUNTY (Miss.), Nov. 10, 1860.
Hon. R. B. RICE, JR., Dear Sir:—I had the honor to receive, last night, yours of the 7th inst., and in reply to inform you that I have no doubt that the event you anticipated has occurred—that electors have been chosen securing the election of Lincoln—and I will answer on that supposition.

My home is so isolated that I have had no intercourse with those who might have aided me in forming an opinion as to the effect produced on the mind of our people by the result of the recent election, and the impressions which I communicate are founded upon antecedent expressions.

I doubt not that the Governor of Mississippi has evoked the Legislature to assemble within the present month to decide upon the course which the State should adopt in the present emergency. Whether the Legislature will direct the call of a Convention of such Southern States as may be willing to consult together for the adoption of a Southern plan of action, is doubtful.

2. If a Convention of the State were assembled, the proposition to secede from the Union, independently of support from the neighboring States, would probably fail.

3. If South Carolina should, first secede, and she alone should take such action, the position of Mississippi would not probably be changed by that fact. A powerful obstacle to the secession of Mississippi is the want of a port; from which follows the consequence that her trade, being still conducted through the ports of the Union, her revenue would be diverted from her own support to that of a foreign Government; and being geographically unconnected with South Carolina, an alliance with her would not vary that state of the case. (See.)

4. The propriety of separate secession by So. Ca. depends so much upon collateral questions that I find it difficult to respond to your last enquiry, for the want of knowledge which would enable me to estimate the value of the elements involved in the issue, though exterior to your State. Georgia is necessary to connect you with Alabama, and thus to make effectual the co-operation of Miss. If Georgia would be lost by immediate action, but could be gained by delay, it seems clear to me that you should wait. If the secession of So. Ca. should be followed by an attempt to coerce her back into the Union, that act of usurpation, folly and wickedness would enlist every true Southern man for her defense. If it were attempted to blockade her ports and destroy her trade, a like result would be produced, and the commercial world would probably be added to her allies. It is probable that neither of those measures would be adopted by any administration, but that Federal ships would be sent to collect the duties on imports outside of the bar; that the commercial nations would feel little interest in that; and the Southern States would have little power to counteract it.

The planting States have a common interest of such magnitude, that their union, sooner or later, for the protection of that interest is certain. United they will have ample power for their own protection, and their exports will make for them allies of all commercial and manufacturing powers.

The new States have a heterogeneous population, and will be slower and less unanimous than those in which there is less of the Northern element in the body politic, but interest controls the policy of States, and finally all the planting communities must reach the same conclusion. My opinion is, therefore, as it has been, in favor of seeking to bring these States into co-operation before asking for a popular decision upon a new policy and relation to the nations of the earth. If So. Ca. should resolve to secede before that co-operation can be obtained, to go out leaving Georgia and Alabama and Louisiana in the Union, and without any reason to suppose they will follow her; there appears to me to be no advantage in waiting until the Government has passed into hostile hands, and men have become familiarized to that offensive and injurious perversion of the General Government from the ends for which it was established. I have written with the freedom and candor of private correspondence, and regret that I could not give more precise information.

Very respectfully, yrs. etc.,
JEFFERSON DAVIS.

THE CHINESE STRIKE.—The Sacramento Record of July 2d, in speaking of the recent Chinese strike on the Central Pacific Railroad says that Charles Crocker returned last night from the line of the work at the Summit and on the Truckee river, and reports that, with the exception of one or two gangs, all of the Chinamen have resumed work. No increase of pay—except the increase before the strike—or degrading in time has been allowed them. We have not learned whether this resumption of work by the Chinamen will stop the orders sent East for several thousand freedmen, but we presume not, as the Company can put any number of hands they may be able to procure. The foundation of this strike appears to have been a circular printed in the Chinese language and sent among them by designing persons for the purpose of destroying their efficiency as laborers.

CIRCUS.—This horse theater, combined with a managerie, will exhibit in this place on Monday evening next. One of the attractive features of this show is the trained buffalo, which is said to do everything but talk. The usual number of equestrian and acrobatic artists accompany it.
